Part X, Line 2:

HFMA is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code. HFMA is subject to taxes on unrelated business income, which is generally HFMA's advertising revenue. Income tax expense associated with unrelated business income is reflected within the taxes expense line item on the consolidated statements of activities.

The Association follows the provisions of the Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes section of the Income Taxes Topic of the Codification, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the consolidated financial statements.

Under this guidance, the Association may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Association and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business income (UBI). The tax benefits recognized in the consolidated financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. This guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes and accounting in interim periods.

As of May 31, 2023 and 2022, the Association has no liability for unrecognized tax benefits. HFMA files Form 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction.
